Off-Site Backup System

We recommend using iBackup.com as the off-site All Orders backup program. Use their SQL Server plug-in that they provide for you.

Be sure to read through their help documents to get it up and running.

Go through each step to make sure you have backed up your database properly. On the iBackup.com website, go to Products and SQL Server Backup for more information.